...My Heart to Yours...

Genesis is more than first things, more than beginnings...it is setting up the a meeting place and the introductions between the God and everyone else. In the accounts of Genesis we have seen not just a god and we have certainly moved beyond our Sunday church understanding of God. We know our amazing God as...

ELOHIM - the Creator

YAHWEH - the Covenant-making I Am, LORD

EL ELYON - the Most High

EL SHADDAI - the Almighty

EL ROI - the God who sees

EL OLAM - the Eternal God

YAHWEH YIREH - the Providing God

ADONAI - Master and Lord

SHAPHAH - the Judge

ABHIR - the Mighty One of Jacob

RASH - the Shepherd

EBEN - the Rock of Israel

Like Abraham, I have felt like a sojourner in many ways - in a new land and learning and seeing new things. Above all, and also like Abraham, this has been a journey of getting to know God personally. What was lost in Eden has not been found - not fully - but the way has been made, the promises given, and the blessings provided by the God who seeks and find and the One who made the way for all who would come to Him to be truly and completely found and restored.

Teaching through Genesis has been a blessing to me and I know from what you've shared it has blessed you as well. I pray that this is more than a Bible study about the beginnings, but that this study is a beginning of many studies and a new eagerness to let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly. I look forward to our next study together.

Know, as always...

you are loved and prayed for.
